WEDNESDAY, MAY 14, 1868.

Local Items.

MR. L. P. KIMPTON has removed his fancy goods and dress and cloak-making establishment to the building opposite the store of Saxe & Place on Main St., recently vacated by the Messrs. Bedard.

A YOUNG BEEF.—Mr. B. Whitney, of East Franklin, has a calf, a cross between short horn and native stock, which weighed when one day old 114 pounds.

BERKSHIRE.—Mr. Caleb Ladd has sold his farm in that town for $3,500, to R. Towle, and purchased the first farm east of Highgate Falls, formerly owned by Samuel Austin, for $6,500.

VARIOUS were the comments yesterday afternoon on the appearance of the first number of the VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT; all, however, it is gratifying to be assured, were of a complimentary nature. We shall each day give a fair amount of reading matter, following somewhat the arrangement of yesterday, which will please both our subscribers and advertising patrons.

GOOD APPOINTMENT.—B. F. Kelley, for sometime past deputy sheriff in this town, has been appointed by Gen. Stannard Inspector of Customs. Mr. Kelley is a good business man, and will perform with credit no doubt, the duties of his new situation.

RICHMOND.—The next regular communication of Missisquoi Lodge, No. 9, will be held Thursday, June 4, 1868.

THE Sentinel says that "Gibson and Corlies have raised their store about three feet, with other other contemplated improvements—repainting, veranda, new roof, &c., will improve its appearance considerably."

A movement is being made to form a Lodge of Good Templars in this village; also to raise money to purchase fire extinguishers.

SWANTON.—There have been returned to the Town Clerk's Office in Swanton, for the year A. D. 1867, thirty marriages, eighty-three births and twenty-nine deaths.

Col. Samuel Goldiey, of Swanton has leased a Marble Quarry of C. L. Bullard for a term of years, and we should think that by the noise he is making in that direction for a few days past, that the works must have tumbled around some.

Col. Goldiey, has also rented the Swanton Excelsior Spring, of Messrs. G. & V. G. Barney, for a term of years and is intending to fit it up in a respectable shape this season.

We think it is not bestowing too much praise to say, that the St. Albans Brigade Band is one of the very best bands which our State can boast. The members meet regularly, and therefore are in constant practice. The citizens of St. Albans and vicinity will have an opportunity to hear the band play their choicest music on the evening of the 28th inst., at Academy Hall. We give the names of the members, and the several instruments played: George E. Kinsley, Musical Director, Solo B Flat; H. H. Sessions, leader, Ist. E Flat Cornet; Milton Sessions, E Flat Clarinet; C. K. Greene, 2nd E Flat Cornet; A. W. Clark, Ist. B Cornet; W. D. Wilson, 2nd B Cornet; G. H. Shurtliff, Solo Alto; J. Pasha, Ist. Alto; J. N. Culver, 2nd Alto; J. J. Barnard, Ist. Baritone; D. Pratt, 2nd Baritone; M. Pasha, B Flat Bass; W. H. Smith, E Flat Bass; D. G. Mitchell, Cymbal; F. M. Sessions, D. B. Sexton, A. S. Greene, Drum Corps; W. H. Smith, Business Agent.

BAKERSFIELD.—Three deaths of long time residents of Bakersfield occurred last week, two of which were quite sudden. Azariah Corse, Overseer of the Poor House, died while in the discharge of his daily duties, of disease of the heart, on Wednesday, May 6th.—Mr. Corse was well known and respected, and industrious citizen, even dying in the performance of active duty.

Mrs. Blodgett, wife of Azrael Blodgett, died on the 8th instant, suddenly, of hemorrhage of the lungs, it being a second attack. Mrs. Blodgett was about 60 years of age, we are informed.

Mrs. Smith, wife of Hiram Smith, also died last week, aged about 60 years. She had long been afflicted with partial paralysis, and her death was a final release from long suffering.

The Congregational Society in Bakersfield are building a new parsonage, upon a lot owned by them, and containing about an acre. Rev. G. F. Wright, their pastor, has officiated for the society about six years, with entire acceptance.

The cellar of Nathaniel Willett was entered a few nights ago, and some twenty dollars, worth of butter and pork stolen. The thief has not yet been discovered.

J. P. McElroy, Esq., has sold his law office in Bakersfield to Warren Isham, who now occupies it as a harness shop. Mr. Isham is just starting the business, and has secured good workmen, and will attain as we hope a thriving business.

Mr. Nathan Jones has the timber out on the spot, to put up a new wheelwright shop, and we judge truly that he means to do an extended business.

L. O. of G. T.

DEDICATION OF THEIR NEW HALL.

The dedication of the new Hall was the occasion of a pleasant entertainment last Wednesday evening. It is well known to our readers that their main business has been rapidly increasing of late, and their former place of meeting, the Vestry of the M. E. Church, had proved inadequate to accommodate them longer. With commendable judgment, we think, they have rented a hall in Barnes' Block directly over the TRANSCRIPT office, and with the generous aid of the friends of temperance in this place have neatly fitted it up for future use. Last evening this hall was sacredly dedicated to the cause of temperance with appropriate services.

The members of the order in this place and a delegation from Rising Sun Lodge No. 8, St. Albans Bay, met at the vestry of the M. E. Church at 6 o'clock P. M. They there clothed themselves in the regalia of the order, and headed by the St. Albans Brigade Band marched in procession to their new hall. The procession numbered nearly two hundred and made a fine appearance and created quite a sensation. One enthusiastic temperance man said it was the grandest sight ever witnessed in St. Albans. This part of the programme was a complete success, and the order has not lost by its first public appearance.

Arrived at the hall, the members and invited friends were all comfortably seated.

The meeting was called to order by W. A. Cooper, acting W. C. T. presiding. The dedicatory services were conducted by Rev. H. K. Cobb, as D. G. W. C. T., assisted by W. A. Cooper, W. C. T. Mrs. L. R. Brainerd, W. V. T. and J. S. Wright, W. C. T. The service of dedication prescribed in the ritual was duly performed. This was quite short, and consisted of opening and closing odes sung by the lodge, short addresses by the D. G. W. C. T. and W. V. T. consecration of the hall by sprinkling of water by the D. G. W. C. T. and reading in proper order of the scriptures and prayer by the W. C. T. This service was very appropriate, and during its performance, the officers and members surrounded the altar, those assisting next to the altar, the other officers in a circle around them and members in circles around the officers.

After this service and an entertaining piece of music by the Band the speaker of the evening was introduced, Rev. T. B. Taylor of Montpelier. We have only room for a short abstract of the address:

In opening the speaker did not announce any formal topic for discussion. He said he was pleased to meet with the friends of temperance, and it was encouraging to witness such a spectacle after such a decline in the temperance movement. He predicted that this service and procession would add at least 100 members to the order in this place, and he devoutly wished that this work might go on till every man and every woman is saved from the evils of intemperance and every rum-shop closed. He alluded in beautiful terms to the proper work of the order. He said it was their work to raise the fallen and prevent the innocent and virtuous from falling.

He spoke of his labor in connection with the order at the West, and then spoke of the objection which some have to the order because its pledge is for life. He said if it is good for a day it is good for a lifetime, and the age of Methuselah would be too short to devote to this service.

He next proceeded to speak of the opposition they have to encounter, and discussed the reasons of this at some length. 1st they have a depraved appetite to contend with, and in dealing with those whose craving for strong drink was almost unsurmountable, he exhorted his brothers and sisters to speak kindly to the poor inebriate, but if they have hard words and hard feelings, reserve them for those who sell.

The second source of opposition is that it is a monied question. It was money that instigated the "Whiskey Rebellion," but the monied interest involved here was not a farthing compared with that involved to-day. It is reported that the whiskey Rings of the country have lately expended $2,000,000 and there was danger that the monied interest would yet rise and throttle our government.

The speaker thought our nation had more to fear from intemperance than it ever had from slavery. That this evil and its attendants might prove our downfall if not checked, and instanced the examples of Rome & Carthage, which should serve us a warning.

He said it should be their object to enlist the influential in this work, for says he "when we cut down the oak it brings the saplings down with it," but don't forget the man down there in the ditch.

In conclusion he spoke of the proper method of carrying on the work, and recommended both moral and legal action, hoping Vermont would not go back on its record as Massachusetts had done. The address was finely illustrated by appropriate anecdotes, and was attentively listened to and the audience well pleased with the efforts.

After a short intermission during which the Band discoursed some excellent music, W. H. H. McAllister for the Committee on toasts read the following sentiments:

St. Albans Lodge No. 33—Inauspicious in its beginning, now "Behold how great a matter a little fire kindleth."

The response to this toast was given by Rev. H. K. Cobb, who gave a sketch of the Lodge, its trials, its discouragements, and its success.

Rising Sun Lodge No. 8—May it ever be a rising but never a setting sun, dispelling the darkness of intemperance as it goes on its beneficent mission.

Responded to by Rev. Mr. Robinson. The follow toast was offered by one of the sisters of the order.

Our brothers, members of St. Albans Lodge—May they ever be, one and all as true to the glorious and noble cause of temperance as they proved loyal to our beloved country in her hour of need.

It is but justice to Mr. McAllister who responded to this toast, that the regular respondent failed, and he only spoke a word without premeditation to prevent a break in the exercises.

The Sisters of our Order—Sympathetic, devoted, earnest, with their co-operation the good work must progress.

The response by C. H. Baker, was in a humorous vein and caused frequent applause, and at its close prolonged cheering.

Our Generous Friends—Thankful for their kind favors we gladly welcome them here to-night. May they find the reward of their liberality in the moral prosperity of St. Albans through our efforts.

Responded to by Hon. R. H. Hoyt, in a fitting manner.

The exercises were closed by singing their closing ode by the Lodge, and playing Old Hundred by the Band.

The following are the odes that were sung and appended to above:

OPENING ODE.

Tune—Rockingham. Page 120.
In thy great name, O God of Love,
We gladly gather here to-night;
Send down Thy blessings from above,
To aid us as we act aright.

O may this temple ever be
Sacred to Temperance—holly cause;
And may we here in harmony
For aye sustain our cherished laws.

May each refuse to speak a word
That e'er shall give another pain;
Here no dissensions shall be heard,
But Love and Purity shall reign.

Here let us pledge ourselves anew,
Never to touch the cup of death;
Let what will come, we will be true
And faithful, to our latest breath.

CLOSING ODE.

Tune—Peterborough. Page 119.
With joy, O Lord, we dedicate
Our temple now to Thee,
And crave Thy blessing when we meet
In Faith, Hope, Charity.

Here may the star of Temperance beam
A light along our way,
And all our hearts united seem,
In Faith, Hope, Charity.

From bondage to King Alcohol
May all our band be free,
And every heart beat, in this hall,
For Faith, Hope, Charity.

May peace her white wings fold above
The band that oft may be
Here gathered in the bonds of love
Of Faith, Hope, Charity.

MESSRS. McGOWAN & BROWN, who we venture to say keep the neatest Hardware store in the State, keep on hand a good assortment of Carpeting and oil cloths, which they sell at reasonable rates. They are reliable business men and deserve success.

State Items.

The dwelling-house of Timothy Tillotson, in Berkshires was recently destroyed by fire, together with most of its contents. Loss between $600 and $700.

At the sale of pews in Christ Church, Montpelier, last week, the amount of rent amounted to about $2,500, with six pews remaining yet to rent. The first choice fell to Fred. E. Smith, at $40 premium; the second to J. W. Ellis, at $45, which was the highest premium paid.

ARCHIBALD L. ALLEN, proprietor of the hotel at West Townsend, committed suicide about noon on Friday last, by shooting himself through the head with a pistol, causing instant death.

CHARLES DAVIDSON and Warren Ransom, of Island Pond, killed a huge hedgehog, last week, weighing forty pounds and measured four feet in length.

HENRY C. CLEVELAND, of Conventry, has one of the best stock animals in the State in his celebrated "Major." He is full blood short horn, bred from stock brought from Kentucky by Hon. Elijah Cleveland. He is four years old next July, and weighs 2200 pounds.

BETHANY church is the name by which the Congregational church edifice now in process of erection in Montpelier is called. It is a massive building of brown stone, far exceeding any other church edifice in the State, both in expense and size, excepting the Catholic church at Burlington. The outside, except the spire and the porches, was finished last season, and work on the inside is being pushed rapidly forward. It is to be completed and ready for use in September next.

The widow of James Campbell of Rochester, Vermont, died, recently of broken heart, just seven weeks after the death of her husband by a tree falling upon him.

The Democratic Convention in the 1st District, will be held at Middlebury May 21st.

I HAVE bought Mr. J. H. Leonard's interest in the firm of Leonard Brainerd & Co. and will continue the business at the old stand where I shall be glad to see old friends and many new ones. All accounts due Leonard, Brainerd & Co. will be settled by me and must be paid immediately.
